

Marines are earning the RBLP, RBLP-C and RBLP-T certifications.

The Marine Corps' Credentials Program Office has a limited amount of certification exam voucher funds that may be used for specifically-identified certifications and licenses. These vouchers will be issued on a first-come, first-served basis.

Check with Marine Corps COOL to determine eligibility requirements.

Military Service members can earn their leadership certification no matter where they are stationed globally. The training provided by our partners and our certification exams are conducted online.

Levels of Certification

RBLP

is for front-line supervisors.

Marines at pay grades
E4 and E5

RBLP-C

is for middle managers.

Marines at pay grade
O1, O2, W1, and E6

RBLP-T

is for senior leaders.

Marines at pay grades O3 and above;
W2-W5, and E7-E9

The Marine Corps COOL program pays for certification exams only and does NOT pay for training. However, active-duty Marines can use GI Bill® benefits to pay for training at approved providers and certification exams at RBLP. Visit our FAQ page and the VA website for more information.

Marine Corps units may use SF182 and the government charge card to pay for exam prep training and our certification exams for groups. Please visit our FAQ page for more information.

Our college, university, and workforce training and development partners offer instructor-led programs in Building and Leading Resilient Teams that prepare people for our leadership certification exams. Check with Marine Corps COOL/CA for a list of approved providers.